Creative Exploration

The creative exploration process that I've done turned out very well. For my creative exploration, I have created some digital art. The digital art itself is fitting with the theme of the website. I wanted to feature the art in some way for the final website. I really hope that I could incorporate them into the final project.